

Chairman's Message

A big welcome to our members and sponsors with the new bowling season well underway.

I would like to welcome our new members - Alison Copley, Ian McKenzie, Michael Madden, Pam McColl, Jeanette Solyom and Jennifer Wademan and hope they enjoy their time with the club.

I would also like to welcome Nelson Alexander Ivanhoe as a new sponsor. They will be sponsoring the Ivanhoe Classic on Good Friday. (More about Nelson Alexander Ivanhoe in the following pages.)

The club had a successful opening day on 25th August, with about 50 members attending. Peter Castello from Banyule Council attended and confirmed the council's support to our club.

The club mourns the recent passing of Merv Norton and our thoughts go out to the family. A new honour board is being commissioned, and the contribution of the Norton family will be recognised.

The club also mourns the loss of Beverley Carbis, and our thoughts are with Warrick and family. Bev will be missed around the club.

The club is fortunate to have a European correspondent. David Murphy's first report makes interesting reading.

We would like to acknowledge Phil Mithen's efforts in producing the Members' Handbook again this year.

At a recent Board meeting, we agreed to look at ways of reducing waste, particularly plastic, including straws, and we are looking to introduce reusable water cups. Pleased help us by returning bottles and cans to the bar rather than putting them in rubbish tins.

Pennant Update (cont'd)

We are delighted to report that Nathan Swincer has been voted by his peers as 'Green Keeper of the Year' and the club has extended Nathan's contract for a further three years. Congratulations Nathan.

In other green related news, Jim Gray has assumed the position of Greens Direction. The club would like to thank Peter Templeton for looking after this role for the past three years. It is important that members respect the opening times for the grass green and that the green keeper and greens director's decision is final regarding the use of the green during periods of inclement weather.

Indoor Bias Update

Ivanhoe entered three teams into the Northern District Pennant Competition again this year, with all three teams based at Sacred Heart in Preston.

The Ivanhoe Knights, skipped by Jim Bullock of Croydon with Tia Van Der Meulen as lead, Ian Thatcher as second and Adrian Ballinger as third, came runners up in the Division 2 final.

Adrian Ballinger organised the teams each week and his work is much appreciated!

Sean Ingram participated in the following state events: lead in the men's fours, skipping the men's pairs.

The team won both of the events he was in.

Indoor Bias Update (cont'd)

Both Adrian Ballinger and Sean Ingram competed in the Ballarat Intergroup Championships 2018. They won the Men's fours - with Adrian playing second and Sean Skipping.

Both men went on to represent Victoria in the Indoor Nationals - Adrian leading in the Men's Fours and Sean Skipping in the Mixed Fours. Both were runners up in their events.

Also worthy of a mention is Anne Draffen, who came runner up in the Ladies Singles.

Overall, Victoria brought home the Jack Gore Trophy for the seventh year in a row beating Tasmania 271 to 260.

- Victoria - 271
- Tasmania - 260
- Queensland - 201
- South Australia - 193
- New South Wales - 155

Tournament Update - Gala Day

Gala Day was held at Ivanhoe on 20th September.

We had 22 sides playing 4s, with a lady skip. We had local clubs including Rosanna, Kingsbury, Templestowe, City of Heidelberg, Eltham, Princes Park, Doncaster and local Ivanhoe sides.

With two games of 12 ends, you needed to win both games to be in the winners circle.

The day was sponsored by Capricorn Travel in Ivanhoe with Pam Ryan making the presentations to the winners.

The winners of the day was a Rosanna side, skipped by Aileen Lundberg.

Umpires Corner

1. A skip has a hearing problem and wishes to communicate with his/her third during the game. Can he/she have any assistance?

Yes. Law 4.2.7 states that "Players with a hearing disability can use electronic devices to communicate with each other while on the rink of play. Electronic devices must be used in line with the regulations set out in the Conditions of Play by the Controlling Body."

TIP: Advise the umpire as a courtesy.

2. An umpire is called to measure the shot and discovers a boundary peg is out of position. What happens?

The umpire shall make a decision on the bowl or jack with boundary peg remaining in its position.

Law 49.8 states that "If a player or the umpire find a boundary peg in the wrong position, they must not move it until the end has been completed on any rinks affected. The peg then must be correctly positioned by the umpire or by agreement between the skips or opponents in singles on the rinks affected."

TIP: Make sure that as an umpire or measurer you check the boundary pegs before the game commences as pegs being out of position should not happen.

3. An umpire/measurer is called to measure the shot and all players are standing around at the head watching. Can anything be done or where should the players stand?

Players should stand away from the head, well clear of the measure, be aware of shadows and preferably on the bank while the measure is undertaken. Law 12.1.2.2 covers this by stating "behind the jack and away from the head if they are members of the team which is not in possession of the rink." It covers both teams as neither is in possession of the rink.

The game has commenced and the mat has been placed off the centre line. What happens?

Law 6.2.3 states that "If the mat is off the centre line, it must be moved to that line."

TIP: Don't get confused with Law 6.1 which also refers to the position of the mat, but instead covers the positioning within the legal distances described in Law 6.1.1.

The above are answers to some of the questions I was asked and I hope they are of help to you.

COME and TRY IT - NEW BOWLERS

The Club is organising a Come and Try Bowls Evening on 5th October.

The aim is to introduce people to bowls and for them to have fun.

The day will start at 5.30 pm and run till about 9pm. A BBQ will commence around 6.30pm.

To ensure this event is a success, we need to have people who want to try out bowls to come along. Please put the word around with your family, friends and work colleagues.

Sponsor's Event Update

NEW ZEALAND COMES TO IVANHOE

On a beautiful Friday morning in September, 25 members of the Ivanhoe Bowling Club were treated to a taste of coach touring, the New Zealand way. Grand Pacific Tours, who only operate in New Zealand, had a coach in Australia. It was expertly driven and manoeuvred by Greg, especially around the cars and narrow streets near the club.

Whilst travelling in the spacious coach, an insight was gained into the many aspects of the tours with informative videos and presentations by Nicki. This outing was operated in conjunction with another sponsor, Capricorn Travel, with representative Pam on board helping out.

The two hour experience included stopping at Westerfolds Park for morning tea. While stopped, the opportunity was available to try out the two business class seats, which is a key feature of the Ultimate Small Group Touring with a maximum of 20 travellers. It was a very pleasant morning and feel sure everyone had their appetite wet for crossing the ditch to undertake one of the many and varied tours on offer.

We thank both Grand Pacific and Capricorn Travel for initiating such a novel treat.

Foreign Correspondent Update

*Bonjour a tous de Cherbourg
(Hello to all from Cherbourg)*

The season is almost upon you and I'm starting to miss the camaraderie around the club but I can assure you I will be keeping a close eye on your successes and challenges throughout the season. Good luck and great times to you all!

I arrived in Cherbourg, on the Normandy peninsula, in March, at the end of a very wet (wettest in 100 years) and cold winter which was both exciting and a shock to the system. An interesting fact for some is: if you were to take Cherbourg and place it in the southern hemisphere, it would be 800kms south of Melbourne. For the first month, I arrived at work each morning in the dark (0700h) and a tad wet. Slowly the Atlantic weather eased and the sun began to shine in May, so much so that Cherbourg recorded the most amount of sun of any region in France, yahoo!

Although sunny, the climate is not hot, quite temperate and stable in Normandy with summer days consistently reaching 24-26 degrees daily during summer and between 6-8 degrees during winter. Perfect for a white fair skinned Irish descent 'boy' like me.

Bonjour a tous de Cherbourg
(Hello to all from Cherbourg)

Cherbourg is a small historic town of less than 30,000 population and provides everything that you could expect from any similar sized town in Australia, but with history that goes back, way way back further. Just down the road (about 70kms) is the gorgeous town of Bayeux, the home of the Bayeux tapestry (69 meters in length), which details the story of William the Bastard who went on to conquer England and become the first Norman King of England, William the Conqueror. There is also a museum there, which traces local history back to the bronze ages, then through Roman occupation to late last century with incredible examples of Chantilly lace and porcelain. Cherbourg was renowned as the 2nd last stop before the Titanic made its final and unplanned stop. The picture (supplied) of the dry dock was constructed over 200 years ago and it is still used today to repair local, and not-so-local, fishing boats and trawlers that have incurred some damage out in the rough Atlantic seas.

More recent history can be discovered at the Normandy D-Day Beaches of Utah, Omaha, Gold, Sword and Juno. The museums and cemeteries are confronting, sobering and present day reminders of how country leaders can get it so wrong! Cherbourg was the ultimate goal following D-Day because it provided a deep water harbour to support the landing of food and military provisions for the allied forces. One sad fact was that the largest number of casualties during the 5 week offensive was not the Allies with 9,000+, or Germans with 14,000+, but civilians with 20,000+.

Normandy peninsula is famous for its apples, cider, calvados (apple brandy) and pommeau (blend of cider and calvados), and cheese. I prefer when the refreshment comes with some alcoholic content, not too much, but some content at least. The beer is better than OK, but they have got the market cornered with excellent wine. Believe it or not, a 3 Euro bottle of Merlot or Bordeaux is really quite nice. The 15+ euro bottles are simply excellent. If you yearn for more expensive, then you can fill your boots. (So may English catch the ferry across from Portsmouth or Poole and do exactly that, taking up to 80L back home tax free.)

I am living in an apartment in the heart of the old quarter of town where there are no cars, just pedestrians. Most of the buildings are constructed of Cherbourg green slate which is even used in the construction of the famous Abbey of Mont Saint Michel. The street is populated with fashion shops (in France, what else would you expect) and on the corners are cafes, creperies and boulangeries (bakeries). I've decided not to buy some bathroom scales because I don't wish to interfere with the enjoyment. Having said so much about food, coffee in France is far from what I enjoyed in Melbourne. I have a French language teacher and I am slowly developing my vocab but with an outrageous Australian accent I still confuse many of the locals – it's fun anyway and they enjoy and appreciate me having a go.

Bonjour a tous de Cherbourg
(Hello to all from Cherbourg)

Life in France has been both exciting and challenging. The World Cup (soccer) was an event that had an effect on the locals that had to be seen to be believed. Place de Gaulle which is only 80m from my front door was the local cauldron on final day, with a giant screen and over 10,000 locals waving flags, singing the national anthem and lighting the occasional flare. Wow! – what a day with so much emotion and passion on display.

I have found the locals (les Cherbourgoise) very warm and inviting as they have gone to enormous efforts to welcome the 40 Australian families to their quiet, small but strategically important town. Each morning my walk through the historic gates to the Naval Base, that were dedicated by Napoleon during his reign and the historic port and man-made harbour that took 70 years to construct, never fails to impress me. Just along from the Australian facility is a submarine bunker that was built by the Germans during WWII and which the French have left standing because they considered it far too difficult to destroy.

Ok, it's now time for you to focus on the 2018/19 season and I sincerely wish you all the best.

So, be the best you can be, enjoy your time, stay clear of the occasional flying (Alby) mats, have a beer for me and enjoy the Bunning's BBQs.

A votre sante (to your health),

David / Murph / Spud
