

THREDBO & PERISHER HISTORICAL SOCIETIES

Invitation to Drinks

Thredbo and Perisher Historical Societies are combining to present an interesting evening of film and a Panel Discussion with one of Australia's pioneering skiing families, the Hughes Family of Sydney.

EVENING OF AUSTRALIAN ALPINE HISTORY:

Tuesday 26 May 2015 5:30 – 8:30 pm

at "History House" 133 Macquarie St, Sydney

Following welcome drinks, a 10 minute film featuring pioneer Charles Anton (founder of the Ski Tourers Association), on one of the Snowy Mountains tragedies: the destruction by avalanche of the Kunama Hutte on Mt Northcote with the loss of one life.

The Hughes Family of Sydney

A wonderful opportunity to hear ski history first hand

Panel discussion moderated by Dr Shann Turnbull represented Australia in overseas ski races in the 1950s.

- Geoffrey Hughes - Lawyer and member of the original Thredbo syndicate
- The Honourable Tom Hughes AO, QC,
Attorney General of Australia in the Gorton Government 1969 - 1971
- Constance Crisp, their sister and architect of the first private lodge at Thredbo, who also represented NSW in interstate ski competitions.

This will be followed by a panel discussion with three members of the Hughes family on the beginnings of Thredbo and their involvement in its development.
