News from around the club

March 2019 – Issue 02

Metro Season Begins

While our Premier League teams are two games into their seasons, the stick bags will be dusted off and mouthguards finally washed for our other seven teams, with the Masters men having a bye first up. High expectations have been set for a couple of the sides, with both the Metro 2 men and women aiming for promotion into the 1's next season.

Over the weekend our PLM played their Round 2 match against Burnside. Keen to build on the good form they developed through passages of last week's game, the team went into the match confident in their structures and match form.

The first two quarters of play were dominated by the midfield and striker lines, with excellent control and creativity from key midfield players. Their new outlet control formation is steadily becoming a keen asset, and they created several excellent scoring opportunities using it. Will Abbott opened up the score board in the first quarter, and subsequent goals from Matt Bruorton, Dylan Brennan and two more by Will Abbott extended the lead.

Amy Hammond was outstanding as we have all come to expect, saving a penalty and a key to the structure at the back.

Unfortunately, a couple of lapses of concentration during the final quarter let Burnside convert a short corner and score a field goal, but our men kept applying constant attacking pressure right through to the end of the match to eventually win 5-2.

This weekend the PLM play against Forestville in what will be tough match out at the Pines at 2:00pm.

The PLW suffered a two-goal loss to Burnside on the weekend. They welcomed back Justice Ebert, plus Kelly and Chloe Whittaker into the side, and it was great to see the familiar faces around the team. With three on the interchange, Coach Greg Abbott was hoping they could improve further from last week and see if they could follow the PLM in getting a win.

Sadly, during the warm up, Kayla suffered a quad injury that ruled her out of the match and they certainly missed her. Even with the initial set back, the girls played a great first half, sticking to their defensive plans and again, moving the ball well into attack.

Against the initial run of play it was Burnside who scored first; but to our girl's credit, they maintained their structure and stayed in the contest. Strikers Annie, Jesse, Lauren and later Georgia, worked tirelessly all game with limited rest. It was their pressure that eventually resulted in a circle entry that was put away by Jess Edwards. Two goals from two games for Jess, she has the knack of being in the right position to capitalise on the circle entries. Half time, one-all, the game was in the balance.

Unfortunately during the second quarter Sonia Ryan strained her quad, and could not take any further part in the game. This left the team with one on the bench, and a massive workload for the defensive group. Laura, Justice, Kelly and Caitlin were outstanding in keeping the team in the game. Hannah, Tia, Chloe and the versatile Lauren held up Burnside's strikers until, like last week, Burnside started to control the ball and score twice to leave the team with the same score line as last game.

Greg was gutted after the match, as the team held their structure for almost three quarters but couldn't sustain it to the end. He is full of praise for the girl's effort during the game, but they must hit the training track to work through those situations and have a plan B.

They come up against an also winless Forestville team this Saturday in what is a good opportunity to get their first points of the year.
