COACHES AND MANAGERS ASSISTANCE POLICY PORT ADELAIDE DISTRICT HOCKEY CLUB INC.

1. PURPOSE

The club recognises that coaches and managers give up considerable amounts of their time and incur additional expenditure to ordinary members and players.

Accordingly, in order to attract and retain people to these demanding roles it will provide financial assistance by way of fee relief and payment in certain circumstances.

2. POLICY

The following levels of assistance will be provided to club coaches and managers.

Level of Assistance

The level of financial assistance shall be that set out in the table below. Note that these values are set around the senior playing fees.

Team	Coach	Assistant Coach	Manager	Coach/Manager
Premier League	#	#	$300	n/a
Metro 1	#	n/a	$300	n/a
Metro 2	Fee Rebate	n/a	$300	n/a
Other Senior Teams and Masters	n/a	n/a	n/a	$400
Junior Teams	Fee Rebate	n/a	$300	n/a/

Paid by negotiation based on the relevant coach's skills and abilities.

Other:

- For the senior teams below Metro 2 the Coaching and Managers roles are combined.
- Where the Committee appoints 2 people to a role then they will be each paid 50% of the value of the respective value.
- These amounts are cumulative and people may manage or coach more than one team.

Payment

The subsidy is payable by way of fee relief. The amount due as a subsidy may be deducted against membership fees owed by the Member to the Club.

Where the subsidy exceeds the value of the membership fees payable by the Member then the subsidy may be applied in the following sequence:

- Applied to the benefit of immediate family members (spouse/partner, children or parents)

The member may also choose to carry the amounts forward and apply them against futures years membership fees.
