

Online Registration for the Concord Baseball Club

In order to register a player you are required to access the club's online registration form, setup a user account and then register the player. The registration system consists of the following steps:

1. Create an account (with Baseball Australia)
2. Adding Basic Details (Player information)
3. Select your registration product
4. Just a few more details
5. Please nominate any team/league preferences (friend/siblings) in the space provided
6. Summary
7. Payment
8. Confirmation

Notes

- The online registration form only works in Google Chrome, Safari and Firefox.
- For returning players logon using last season's email address and password.
- If you have forgotten your password click on the "Forgot Password" link.
- If you have forgotten your email please contact Gavin on concord.baseball@gmail.com
- New users please signup using a current email address.
- The Concord Baseball Club player fees are determined based on the age of the player. Please refer to our website for the fee structure and age matrix.
- There are 4 components to annual registration fees:
 - National League Fee (Baseball Australia) including a compulsory player insurance premium
 - BNSW League Fee (Baseball NSW)
 - Concord Baseball Club Fee
 - Umpire Levy
- We recommend that you close your browser after you register a player.
- Note that registration is not complete unless online payment has been made. Payment can be made using Paypal or credit card (Amex and Diners club are NOT accepted). The club can no longer accept direct payments of registration fees.
- To pay by PayPal, press the uncoloured 'Pay with PayPal' button at bottom of the screen. It opens a small form for you to enter PayPal credentials; when those are successfully entered it returns you to the SportsTG form where you must press 'Pay Now' to complete the payment. SportsTG have advised that users need to make sure pop-ups are not blocked.
- After you have paid, you will receive TWO emails, being a Payment Confirmation and a Welcome letter

If you continue to experience difficulty, please email Gavin on concord.baseball@gmail.com or directly on 0425233551 and provide the email address used.

For persistent errors please contact Sports TG directly on www.sportstg.com and they will create an account and provide you with a correct password for them at the back end.
