GLOSSARY

Harassment and Intimidation as viewed in the eyes of the complainant covers a wide range of behaviors of an offensive nature. It is commonly understood as behaviour intended to disturb or upset, and it is characteristically repetitive. In the legal sense, it is intentional behaviour, which is found threatening or disturbing.

Berating means censure severely or angrily usually publicly.

Abuse is the improper usage or treatment of another for a bad purpose, often to unfairly or improperly gain benefit. Abuse can come in many forms, such as: physical or verbal maltreatment or causing injury.

Bullying is a form of aggressive behavior manifested by the use of force or coercion to affect others, particularly when the behavior is habitual and involves an imbalance of power. It can include verbal harassment, physical assault or coercion and may be directed repeatedly towards particular victims, perhaps on grounds of age, race, religion, gender, sexuality, or ability. The "imbalance of power" may be social power (age or ability) and/or physical power.

Profanity also known as swearing, cursing or foul speech, is a show of disrespect, a desecration or debasement of someone or something, or just the act of expressing intense emotions. Profanity can take the form of words, expressions, gestures, or other social behaviors that are socially constructed or interpreted as insulting, rude, vulgar, obscene, obnoxious, foul, desecrating or other forms

Sledging is a term used to describe the practice whereby some competitors seek to gain an advantage by insulting or verbally intimidating another competitor. The purpose is to try to weaken the competitor's concentration, thereby causing him to make mistakes or underperform

In the first instant a warning or direction to cease will be issued. Continued inappropriate behaviour or failure to comply with the warning or directions will result in a competitor's being disqualified from the event and asked to leave the Venue or non-competitors or spectator's being asked to leave the Venue. This may also result in further action in line with the Archery Australia Member Protection Policy. In extreme cases the Police or appropriate authorities may be called.
