

2017 Dan Candidates Study Group

Hosted by the NSW BBR

The NSW Black Belt Register (BBR) is hosting a study group for Dan candidates to prepare for the Judo NSW Dan Grading to be held on Sunday 26 November 2017.

The group will meet to study the Go Kyo no Waza standing techniques and Newaza mat techniques.

By participating in the study group, you should be well prepared to meet the Dan Grading requirement.

Dates 11, 18, and 25 November 2017
Time 1:00-3:30pm
Place Newington Armoury Judo NSW Dojo
Cost $15/session, $10/session for BBR members, $5/session for morning Kata participants

Agenda (rough)

11 Nov Go Kyo no Waza
18 Nov Go Kyo no Waza and Newaza techniques
25 Nov Newaza techniques and referee

The study group will be led by Dale Keogh (6th Dan), Ernie Wakamatsu (4th Dan), who are on the BBR Dan Grading panel, and supported by Michael Griffiths (2nd Dan), who is the BBR Secretary. However, all are expected to actively participate and share Judo knowledge.

