Newsletter #17

Thanks to everyone who came out to our Sponsors & Old Boys Day last weekend! After the amount of rain we had in the days prior, it was a great effort by Jason McMahon, and all the other volunteers/players to get our fields into a playable condition on Sunday. The Div 1 boys had a strong win, 11-1, against Surfers in the first game, and were dominating the second game, 5-1, before a storm washed it out. Unfortunately, overall, the Div 1 team finished just outside the top 4, finishing in 5th spot.

Sponsors & Old Boys Day will be back bigger and better again next year! We had a great crowd turn up, considering the weather leading in, and it was awesome to see some old, familiar faces again. Thanks to Brian Zeidler for organising. And thanks to the A Grade team for the BBQ cook up afterwards!

Junior and Senior Presentations are being organised at the moment. Our Junior Presentations & Break Up Day will be held at the club on Saturday 17th March. Senior Presentation Night will be held at the club on Saturday 24th March. More details to come. Your coach/manager will be in contact with more information. Details will also be on the App and Facebook.

During the off season, one of our Senior Coaches, Peter Dutton (a former representative QLD & Australian player), will be introducing the Musketees Academy. A selection of U16/U20 players will be invited to attend a 10 week workshop beginning July/August to develop these players' skills further. There will be a number of current/past Australian representative players who will assist in the coaching, with a lot of playing experience to be shared. We are also looking at implementing a Development Squad for keen U12/U14 players, who would like to attend fundamental drills and pre-season training, leading up to next season. What a great initiative to endorse our Club's future! Any current or past coaches/players, who would like to be involved, please email treasurer@ipswichmusketeesbaseball.com.
