March Conduct and Paying of Compliments

General: The Adelaide ANZAC Day Commemorative March is a march of commemoration, culminating in a service at the Cross of Sacrifice. All participants are requested to refrain from calling-out loudly to those lining the route, or waving and calling out at the TV cameras – all of which detract from the solemnity of the occasion, and reflects poorly upon the day.

Unit Flags and Banners: Unit flags and banners are to be lowered for all salutes. Yellow unit identification signs are to remain upright and facing the front at the saluting points, except on approaching the Official Dais, where they are turned half-right for the salute on the order EYES-RIGHT! and then returned to face the front on the order EYES-FRONT!

National Flags: The Australian National Flag is not to be lowered at any of the Saluting Points, and there is no requirement for other national flags to be lowered.

Non-Veterans Marching as Next of Kin

Next of Kin: Next of Kin of The Fallen, of deceased veterans, or of veterans who are unable to take part in the march, are welcome to participate in the ANZAC Day Commemorative March. Next of Kin participants must be at least thirteen years of age and march within one of the specially-provided sections in Group 12 (B). Assemble on the southern side of Grenfell Street, east of Pulteney Street. All Next of Kin are encouraged to wear their relative's service medals on the right breast.

The Cross of Sacrifice Ceremony

Commencement: The service commences after the March, upon arrival of His Excellency The Governor of South Australia.

After the March

Food, refreshments, Two Up and entertainment will be available at the Torrens Parade Ground. This activity is open to the public, veterans, family, friends and interstate and overseas visitors.
