

Athletics Australia National Athlete Support Structure

Paralympic Preparation Program

The National Athlete Support Structure is an Athletics Australia high performance system that provides support to individual athletes who are contributing to the Australian Institute of Sport's (AIS) Winning Edge.

The Winning Edge aims for Australia as a nation to be one of the top-five at the Olympic and Paralympic Games, that we will be the leading nation at the Commonwealth Games and that we will have 20 world champions each year.

Below are the confirmed para-athletes to be supported by the National Athlete Support Structure in the coming 12 months.
