A Display Of Sheer Power From C2 Bears In Big Win Over 4th Place Kissing Point Angels

After starting the game with a "three-up, three-down" top of the first, the Bears came out and put on 7 quick runs through solid hitting and yet another blast from Col over the left field fence.

The advantage was pulled back with 5 run and 6 run responses from the Angels over the following 2 innings. At 15-11 in the bottom of the third, the game was put beyond doubt with another shot over the fence from Crem.

A further 12 runs in the 4th inning, including a grand slam from Barto, pushed the score out to 30-11, giving KC the pitching win.

Stars with the bat at the top of the order were Crem (4-4 and 5 RBI), Brett (4-4 and 4 RBI) and Spud (4-4 and 3 RBI). At the bottom of the order, Jim (2-2, 2 walks and 4 RBI) and Barto (2-4 and 5 RBI) kept the runs flowing.

This win puts the Bears into 2nd place, and putting together some solid combinations in preparation for the finals.

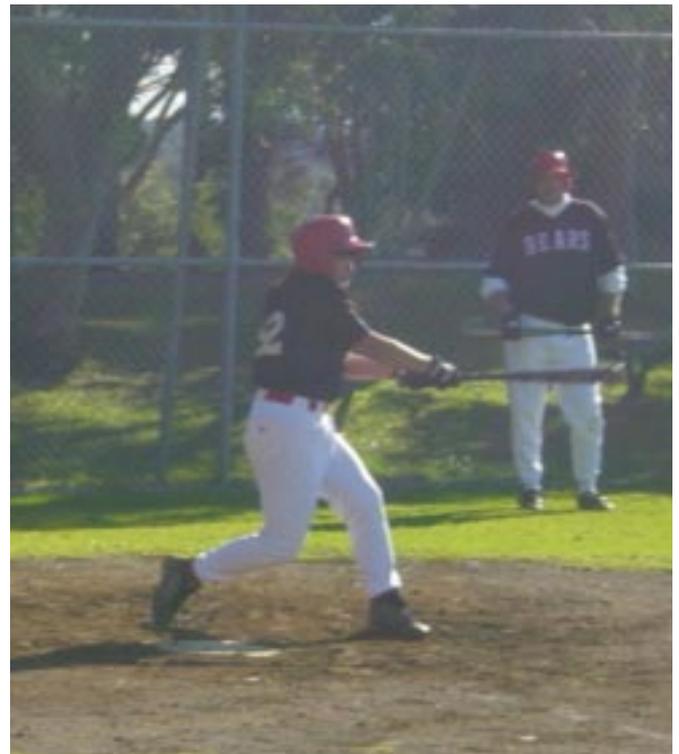

The C1 Bears won on forfeit but stuck around for an intra-squad scrimmage. With only three games remaining the side are looking to get some wins on the board and close the season on a high note. Of note, some age-old rivalries were challenged, with Hags still batting 1.000 against Barto, and Spud unable to get the bat off Doc's shoulder, walking him on 4 straight wayward pitches.

F Grade "Young Gun" Dan Pearson chucks a bullet in Saturday's game against Baulkham Hills.

F2 Bears Second Baseman Yvette Miller pastes the ball through the infield.

Real Bear Sets Bar High For September Brisbane Trip.

BAKER LAKE, Wash. (AP) — Rain-eeeeer Bear? When state Fish and Wildlife agents recently found a black bear passed out on the lawn of Baker Lake Resort, there were some clues scattered nearby — dozens of empty cans of Rainier Beer.

The bear apparently got into campers' coolers and used his claws and teeth to puncture the cans. And not just any cans.

"He drank the Rainier and wouldn't drink the Busch beer," said Lisa Broxson, bookkeeper at the campground and cabins resort east of Mount Baker.

Fish and Wildlife enforcement Sgt. Bill Heinck said the bear did try one can of Busch, but ignored the rest.

"He didn't like that (Busch) and consumed, as near as we can tell, about 36 cans of Rainier."

A wildlife agent tried to chase the bear from the campground but the animal just climbed a tree to sleep it off for another four hours. Agents finally herded the bear away, but it returned the next morning.

Agents then used a large, humane trap to capture it for relocation, baiting the trap with the usual: doughnuts, honey and, in this case, two open cans of Rainier. That did the trick.

"This is a new one on me," Heinck said. "I've known them to get into cans, but nothing like this. And it definitely had a preference."

Scouting Report: Second leadoff batter and starting infielder... punches well above her weight, especially at Gilroy's Hotel

Value to the Bears: Shows the Bears are an equal opportunity organization, and that we do not discriminate against anyone, even lawyers from Mosman.

Most embarrassing Bears moment: Whenever I go to the pub after a game wearing these damn oompah loompah pants.

On behalf of the members of the North Sydney Leagues Baseball Club, we'd like to congratulate Yvette on being selected to join the Australian Women's Baseball Development Team. The team will be playing friendlies in San Francisco before playing in the Women's World Series in Orlando in October.

Best Bears moment:

Finishing top of the table in winter 2000 (which was followed by my worst Bears moment - losing the grand final).

Favorite female celebrity:

Johnny Depp

Dream Car: The A-Team van

Biggest Regret:

Not doing Little Athletics

Best thing about playing in F Troop: The comic relief. And the formidable combination of energetic teenagers ("the young bucks") and experienced elders ("the fully heaps old guys").
